

As the effect of any work on the view seems to be the paramount concern I enclose photo showing how the appearance of the area has changed since 2016.

Photograph taken before the reed bed was removed in 2016.
The vegetation does not block the view of the river.

Photograph supplied by a resident